

GRAMMAR

USED TO, BE USED TO & GET/ BECOME USED TO

WORKSHEET ANSWER KEY

1) Write USED TO, BE USED TO or GET USED TO in the spaces provided. Make sure you use the correct verb tense.

1. When I was a teenager I used to dress up for Halloween, but not anymore.
2. At first I was really nervous about driving in Vancouver, but now I am used to it.
3. I don't think I'll ever get used to the rain in Vancouver.
4. Mike is Chinese. He is not used to speaking English in the office.
5. The smell of fish is awful, but you'll get used to it after a couple of months in the job.
6. There are some things in this life that you'll never get used to.
7. It will take a while for the office staff to get used to the new computer software.
8. Two years ago, the students used to have four hours a week of language lessons, but now they have three hours.
9. She is used to hard work. She grew up in a very poor family.
10. My children are used to eating hamburgers, but I don't think I'll ever get used to eating them.
11. People from Africa are used to hot weather because of the dry and hot climate there.
12. I wasn't happy about working the evening shift but I have got used to it now.
13. When I was starting to write, I used to think I would never be as good as Margaret Atwood.
14. Mr. Blundell used to do lots of interviews when he was the mayor of Vancouver.
15. He never got used to flying a helicopter, even after years of working as a co-pilot.

2) Translate the following sentences:

1. Estoy acostumbrado a cocinar.

I am used to cooking.

2. Veía la televisión por la noche. (Solía ver la televisión por la noche)

I used to watch TV at night.

3. Me estoy acostumbrando a usar mi nuevo móvil.

I am getting used to my new mobile.

4. Él está acostumbrado a trabajar por la noche.

He is used to working at night.

5. ¿Jugabas con los niños? (¿Solías jugar con los niños?):

Did you use to play with the kids?

6. Me acostumbré a viajar.

I got used to travelling.