

GRAMMAR

GERUNDS AND INFINITIVES

WORKSHEET ANSWER KEY

1) Choose the correct form of the verbs (infinitive or gerund).

- I am keen on working in the computer industry.
- Amy decided to see a doctor.
- Leila enjoys reading love stories.
- Do you intend to learn Italian or English?
- Do you mind helping me wash the dishes?
- Alan asked to talk to the boss.
- I can't help laughing when I watch Mr Been.
- If Sara keeps coming to work late, she'll have problems with the boss.
- Liza hates studying Maths.
- Are you interested in living in África ?

2) Rephrasing: Finish these sentences writing down a suitable –ing or infinitive verb form without changing the meaning of the original sentence. Example:

Andrew gave up smoking last January -> Andrew stopped smoking last January.

- Peter is sure that he posted the letter yesterday.
Peter remembers posting the letter yesterday.
- I liked to read the novel.
I enjoyed reading the novel.
- Please, remember to post this letter.
Please, don't forget to post this letter.
- Don't sing the same song again:
Stop singing the same song.
- 'I will do it', she said.
She promised to do it.
- Ellen didn't have enough money for the ticket.
Ellen couldn't afford to buy the ticket.
- 'I will not help!', said John.
John refused to help.