

SCORING

VOCABULARY

- ✓ THE SCORE: the record of goals that indicates who is winning. The final score is the result that decides who has won the match. It can also be used as a verb (to score). -> Resultado, marcador/ Marcar un gol
- ✓ TO CONCEDE: to allow a goal in; the opposite of scoring a goal. -> Encajar un gol
- ✓ AN OWN GOAL: a goal scored accidentally by a member of the defending team that counts in favour of the attacking team. -> Gol en propia puerta
- ✓ THE LEAD: when a team scores first, it is "in the lead", i.e., it is winning the match at the point of scoring. -> Ventaja
- ✓ AN EQUALISER: a goal that cancels out the opposing team's lead and leaves the match tied or drawn. -> Gol que causa un empate
- ✓ A DRAW: a match that ends in a tie, i.e., it has no winner or loser. The teams get one point each for a draw. It can also be used as a verb (to draw). -> Empate/ empatar
- ✓ A DEFEAT: a match that is lost, the opposite of a win. It can also be used as a verb (to defeat). -> Derrota/ Derrotar
- ✓ TO KNOCK OUT: to eliminate another team from a competition. -> Eliminar de una competición
- ✓ A PENALTY SHOOTOUT: it takes place if a match is a draw after full-time or extra-time. Five players from each team take a penalty each and if the score is still level after that, one player from each team takes a penalty in turns in order to decide who wins the match. -> Tanda de penaltis
- ✓ A PLAY-OFF: an extra match to decide which of two or more teams should go through to the next round. -> Partido clasificatorio
- ✓ THE AWAY-GOAL RULE: in some competitions, e.g., the UEFA Champions' League, a rule that rewards teams for scoring away from home over two legs (or matches). For example, in 2005, AC Milan beat PSV Eindhoven 2-0 at home (in Milan) but lost 1-3 away in Holland. So both teams had scored three goals and conceded three goals but because AC Milan had scored a goal away from home, it went through to the Champions' League final on the away-goal rule. -> Regla del gol marcado fuera de casa o del gol de visitante
